

Mrs. Louise Johnson

July 31, 1947 - January 15, 2014

Louise Johnson was born July 31, 1947 to McKinley Harris (who preceded her in death) and Lorene Harris. She gave her life to Christ at an early age attending the Reverend C. L. Franklin Church New Bethel.

Louise attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Central High School. She later graduated from Carnegie Institute earning a certificate as a lab technician.

She met and married Winston Johnson (who preceded her in death).

Louise loved to read in her spare time, often reading three books a week. She also loved to dance and was the life of the party and lit up the room with her gorgeous smile. Louise also loved television which included Jeopardy, Law and Order and reruns of Matlock. She loved people and would strike up a conversation with a complete stranger as if she'd known them all of her life!

Even though she became disabled, she never let it get her down. She kept a beautiful smile on her face rolling in her wheelchair greeting everyone!

Louise was feisty and full of life. She was a mother, daughter, grandmother, aunt and friend, but more importantly she was loved.
