“ Grammy was so beautiful inside and out always! I use to fight for her attention with a friend of mine and she would just laugh at me and tell me how much she loved us both. She was so very special to me and everyone. God has his angel back. Bless the family and thank you for sharing Grammy with us. Only happy loving memories.

“ It is amazing how much one person's life can touch so many. Louise Lockett could not have known how much her life touched the lives of those around her. She will be remembered for many things: her sweetness, the way she owned every note of her song, her joyous spirit, her testimony and her faithfulness to the cross. She left an indelible foot print as part of that special guard of the Lord.

*Proverbs 31:28 says "Her children arise up, and call her blessed;..."
And her children carry out her legacy through music, leadership, ministry and song, just as their mother, being a blessing to those they encounter along the way.*

May God bless and keep you, Lockett family. You had an inspiring example! Our hearts and prayers are with you all.

“ I have wonderful memories of the friendship of our younger selves when Louise and Charlie, and my late husband, Joe, and I were active friends, raising our children up in the church, and socializing with one another. I have the memories and deep appreciation of the type of godmother Louise was to our daughter, Marilyn (Pumpkin). I remember the beautiful words she spoke on behalf of my husband, Joe, when he passed. And I remember the soul stirring way she sang the gospel (like only she could).

And though we experienced many losses and gains in our lives, I think we never lost that early bond established in our more youthful days: the kind that always remembers well, and always wishes well because it is established through a seed of special fondness that is uncorrupted over time. The kind of bond that means, wherever you are, whatever you do, wherever you go, you will always be my friend.

And so I say, until we meet again, Louise Lockett. Until we all meet again, old friend.

To the rest of the Lockett family: may the peace of God and the prayers of all those who carry you in their hearts, comfort and sustain you.

“ I remember always wanting to sit next to Gammy in church, but my mother didn't want me doing a lot of walking during service. Gammy would say let my baby come on up her with her Gammy. She would say are you ok baby now and I would say "Yes Ma'am ". Gammy had such a calming tone when she spoke. It spoke LOVE. Gammy you will forever be in my heart ❤️ kiss Papa for me. Love you Gammy;

“ To my sister, Louise. You were the last sister I had, and I miss you so much. Tears fill my eyes when I think of you no longer being here. But, I know you've now met up with Charlie, Big Mama, our 5 sisters, and all those who've gone on before. OH, WHAT A GLORIOUS TIME THAT MUST HAVE BEEN!!! I thank God that you didn't have to go through a lot of pain, and that you were ready to meet Him. And if there's anything you can do to help those of us left here on earth, do it!!

I love you,
Your sister,
Berdell

“ RIH Gammy! You were the ABSOLUTE BEST grandmother I could have ever asked for!!!! Thank you for teaching me how to love God and my family. Thank you for all the shopping trips, my first fine dining experiences and most of all, for being my road partner when I first started preaching. You prayed for me, encouraged me and best of all, you laughed with me!!!! We had such good times together. I'll always love, honor and cherish you. I pray that I can be half the woman you were. I'm so glad that I got a chance to fly home this past weekend to see you before you took your flight this morning. Now you and Papa can be together again... My heart is broken but I praise God for a life of 92 years, well lived. TO GOD BE THE GLORY!!!!

“ It is with a heavy heart ❤️ that we take this opportunity to express our sincere sympathy to Dr. Jynean Chandler and her family in the loss of their dear mother, Louise Lockett.

Mo. Lockett was a woman of many facets. She was a mother, not only to her beloved children, but she was known as the Universal Mother, “Grammy” to all who had the privilege of knowing her. She loved God’s people! She was a writer, poet, and theologian.

I had the honor of meeting Mo. Lockett for the first time as a student at Greater Northwest Bible Training Institute. She was my instructor in Biblical Personalities. She had a way of capturing your attention by teaching Bible stories in such a creative, animated way. You knew right away that she was passionate about teaching. Her enthusiasm made you want to explore and dig deeper into the Word of God. She was an amazing theologian, gifted writer and instructor. I am thankful for all that I learned under her tutelage.

After I graduated from Bible College, my family and I had an opportunity to engage in many conversations with Mo. Lockett. We fell in love with her sweet, compassionate, kind, gentle-spirit. She was a Godly woman of wisdom. She would always say, “We should be proud of our salvation. I belong to the Lord. I am a king’s child!” She shared many personal stories with us. My husband and I loved the story of how she met her husband. He was in a 5 piece jazz band. He came to her church and began playing the piano. She was a soloist, her father was a minister and her mother was the church mother. Mo. Lockett laughed when she said, “he left that jazz band, and got saved!” He later became a deacon in the church and played the piano. The rest is history!

Mo. Lockett shared her love ❤️ of the Bible, and her poems everywhere and every opportunity she had. Our last visit with her was shortly before the pandemic at Notting Hill of West Bloomfield. She recited many of her poems to us. It was her pleasure and our joy. We will miss her beautiful personality and contagious smile.

Her legacy will live on through all those who have been blessed by her life.

“ Gammy, you were the best mother anyone could have! You were my teacher, my prayer partner, my shoulder to cry on and the perfect example of a holy woman! I have a hole in my heart because I miss you. However, I am rejoicing because you are enjoying your heavenly abode.
