“ To the Fagan Family

I will miss auntie when I use to call her and we would talk for hours on the phone. When she got sick I could only ask Uncle Lewis about how she was doing. To my family I'm hoping time will do its part to ease the sorrow you're felling, little by little, season by season. I love you'll and I will be praying for the family to be strong during this time.

“ To the Fagan Family,

*"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you" (John 14:27).
"Let not your heart be troubled" (John 14:1).*

Louvina Fagan was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother who saw to it that her husband, children and grandchildren were given the best she could provide in loving care.

The memories we have of Louvina will always be dear to our hearts.

Let God be your fortress in which you take refuge and may our Lord bless and comfort you during this difficult time.

May our prayers and the prayers of all who love you bring solace to your souls.

“ Mommy,

I will miss you so much, I have taken care of you through your illness, now it is time for me and you to rest as in the scripture Matthew 11:25-30.

Mommy now Jesus will take care of you now, no more worries or suffering.

*Love you always,
Charlien your daughter*
