

Mrs. Lubertha Durr

November 25, 1915 - February 26, 2015

In Remembrance Of Our Beloved Lubertha Durr:

Lubertha "Bert" Durr passed away peacefully in her home on Friday, February 26, 2015. Born in Gaffney, South Carolina to Mr. and Mrs. William Kee (both preceded in death), the first of three children.

Bert, as she was affectionately called, also lived in North Carolina before making Detroit her home.

Bert married Mr. Eddie Durr (preceded in death) and attended King Solomon Baptist Church along with him. She was a longtime resident on W. Buena Vista in Detroit.

Bert was employed with the city of Detroit Public Schools and worked as a custodian until her retirement.

She enjoyed traveling, spending time with family and attending many functions. Her favorite pastime hobby was working crossword puzzles. Bert was a stickler for paperwork; she kept records of every transaction she made. At 99 years her mind was very sharp and she knew what she wanted and how she wanted it done. It goes without saying, she lived a rich and full life. As one niece recalls, Bert said, "If I make it to 100 years, I won't complain."

“ Aunt Bert, where do I start I have so many special Memories of you from the picnic's to all our talk's while at work. i remember picking your brain getting the informaion i needed for the tribute to you at the Picnic. when I started to tell everyone your story. You asked my Dad is she talking about me and started to cry it was priceless you were so happy and we sung Happy 99th Birthday to you so the out of town family could share in that moment. my other memory was when she told me about 3years ago on her 97th birthday you said "baby if I make it to 100 "I won't Complain" Well Aunt Bert you did't complain and you almost made it to '100' But you had nothing to Complain about you did it your way. Even though I wish I could have Finish your 'Centenial' just to see the look on your face. God has you now and oh boy what a finish. even though my Heart is heavy now I will never forget you and Remember I will always love you. your niece Carol Durr
