

Mrs. Luciel Bennett

July 14, 1938 - April 26, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Luciel Bennett:

Luciel Bennett was born July 14, 1938 in Gastonburg, Alabama to the late Moses and Bessie Mae Johnson. Her sister Anna Mae, son Gilbert and her grandson Angel preceded her in death.

She graduated from Northwestern High School.

Luciel was married to Albert Bennett for over 58 years to this union two children were born Gilbert and Priscilla.

She worked as a nurse's aide for over 40 years. She loved that job, though, and it felt important. My mother's entire life was devoted to service to others. She raised her children, which is an act of personal sacrifice unto itself. Yet busy as she was working and raising me and my brother keeping us fed, caught up on our homework and our extra activities, she still managed to devote hours to her church and when her health allowed was a faithful member of Third New Hope Missionary Baptist.

But as long as Mom could still lift a hand, she would lift it in kindness to someone else. Some of my best memories were my mother daughter time we would go to plays out to eat and shopping trips we would laugh and talk all day.
