

Mrs. Lucille Maude Dias

August 19, 1930 - June 27, 2025

Lucille Maude Dias, lovingly called Mama/Starcille/Sister Lucille, 94, passed peacefully, in a room surrounded by loved ones on June 27, 2025.

Lucillie was born on August 19, 1930 and raised in a humble home in Hanover, Lucea, Jamaica. In 1955, she met her future husband, Grandville Augustus Dias. The two married in 1963.

Lucille was courageous and her life's mission was to provide her children with opportunities she could only dream of. In her pursuit of better, she migrated to the US in 1990. She later worked as a teacher's assistant and a volunteer at DMC Children's Hospital.

She is survived by her eight children: Sheila May Daley, Jennifer Louise Burke, Sandra Patricia Dias, Dianne Joy Dias, Grandville Augustus Dias Jr., Michelle Ann-Marie Dias, Denise Delrose Dias, and Carolyn Anne Dias, a total of 40 grand and great-grandchildren, and siblings; Franklin, Duncan, Norris, and Presival Campbell.

Preceding her in death was her husband; Grandville Augustus Dias, daughter; Veronica Louise Grant, parents; Edna Samuels and Daniel Sinclair, and siblings; Bobby Foster, Eric Sinclair, Fred, John and Ferdie Campbell.

Lucille's life was marked by her faith. She was a member of the Damascus Baptist Church. Wherever and whenever you found Lucille, she was always sweetly humming or singing a gospel hymn. She was a brilliant storyteller with a sharp mind; quick to remind us of tales from the past. Her family and those who loved her remembers her as a jokester, an encourager, a wonderful homemaker, a pillar of strength and comfort, and a well of wisdom. Lucille loved and was loved until the very end of her beautiful life.
