“ Growing up, I spent an abundance of time in my cousin/ aunt's home. It was a gathering place of family and friends. I remember constant laughter, endless card games, good food (delicious cakes) and great times.

It is because of Lucille that my parents met. She and my mother were classmates who became the best of friends, and then sisters-in-law. Lucille hooked my mother up with her uncle (my dad). And my mother hooked Lucille up with her brother (my uncle and father of my cousins).

My aunt was blunt, witty, funny and she really did have a heart of gold. When I look at my freckled face, I see hers. I'm grateful for the last time I spoke with her. I will cherish those memories.

My condolences to my cousins Virgil and Vernon and all the grands, great grands, nieces, nephews and EVERYONE else who LOVED Lucille.
