The Life And Legacy Of Luella McCallum:

Luella McCallum was born on December 15, 1940 in Starkville, Mississippi to the loving parents Lenzil and Mary L. (Kidd) Tate, who preceded her in death. Luella loved the Lord and confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized at Blackjack Missionary Baptist Church in Starkville, Mississippi.

Mrs. Luella continued to live a Christian life as a member of Shield of Faith Ministries.

Luella excelled in everything and graduated with honors from Henderson High School in Starkville, Mississippi. Luella loved bragging to her children about how swift and fast she was on the basketball court. She also received several teaching certificates from the Board of Education, DPS.

Luella came to Detroit, Michigan in 1960 where she met and married Herbert McCallum on April 29, 1961. To this union two children were born, one preceded her in death, Roderick McCallum.

Luella worked for the Board of Education as a Para Professional and loved educating children. After 30 years of service, Luella retired from the Board of Education, July 1, 2005. She enjoyed her retirement and was proud of her accomplishments.

On December 1, 2009, she became a volunteer at Beaumont Grosse Pointe

Hospital, where she loved meeting new people. Everyone called her “Sweet Lue” because of her loving, sweet, kind, and giving heart.

The life Mrs. Luella lived speaks volumes to the strong and loving woman she was. Her greatest joy was her children. She was a strong, victorious, and phenomenal woman, who took pride in her cooking and inviting her family over every Sunday for dinner. She looked forward to the good food, love, laughter, and family conversations.
