

Mrs. Lynda Jean Rhea

October 19, 1965 - December 25, 2013

Celebration of Life:

Lynda Jean Butler-Rhea's journey began on October 19, 1965 to the parentage of Eugene Butler Sr. and Ola Mae Wilson. Lynda knew the Lord and accepted Christ at an early age. She was baptized at True Faith Baptist Church in Detroit, MI. Her parents Ola and Eugene Sr. moved her and her siblings to Detroit, MI in 1975, when she was 10 years old.

She attended Cody High School in Detroit, MI. She also furthered her education at Dorsey School of Business. She was employed at H&R Block for over 17 years. Her hobbies were cooking, being around family and friends, always smiling and being the life of the party.

“ Missing you soooo much ❤️ You were simply a beautiful soul taken from us jst too soon. May you continue to rest peacefully

“ We're sorry that we were unable to attend the services, however our prayers and thoughts are with you. Remember that those we love remain with us, for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart. For as long as there are memories, Lynda will always live on in our hearts. Nothing can ever take away the love a heart holds, dear fond memories linger every day, remembrance keep them near.

Oh, how much we miss her. So, cherish all your happy moments: they are a fine cushion for old age.

“ A poem in loving memory of my dear friend! I love you Lynda Rhea.
(Stacey Nichols)

Silent tear

*Each night we shed a silent tear,
As we speak to you in prayer.
To let you know we love you,
And just how much we care.
Take our million teardrops,
Wrap them up in love,
Then ask the wind to carry them,
To you in heaven above.*
