

Mrs. Madelyn Carolyn Moore

January 7, 1948 - January 10, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Madelyn Carolyn Moore:

I, Madelyn 'Madmoo" Carolyn Moore was born on January 7 in 1948 in Nashville, Tennessee. I was the seventh out of nine children born to the late Charles and Johnetta McKeever. Three of whom preceded me in death, Clement, Michael, Helen.

I know that I was the Apple of my parents' eye even though my siblings would beg to differ. I was educated in the Nashville Metropolitan Public School System and graduated from Pearl High School in 1966.

From my union with Hanley Wade, God blessed with me with two beautiful daughters, Monica "Monty and Nerissa "Nissy. I thought that Nashville was the place to be but God had other plans for me. In 1971, I moved to Detroit Michigan where I became a faithful member of the Warren Avenue Missionary Baptist Church and began my long career in the banking business. First being hired by the Bank of the Commonwealth in 1971. I married Harvey Moore and from this union I was blessed with my only son Harvey "Rock." Continuing my career I also worked for First of America Bank and National City Bank and later retiring from First Independence Bank in 2012.

In my spare time I love travelling, gardening, preparing home cooked meals and spending time with family and friends. I thought my work was done but God had one more assignment for me and on January 10, 2015 he called me home.

“ Madelyn and the girls had recently moved to Detroit when Sam & I were dating. She came back for our wedding. She came over to help us set up our first apartment after the wedding. Every time we would visit in Detroit she would always make time to take us on tours to Canada, etc. I remember she taught me how to make fresh fried corn. She came down one summer and took Sean & Shavaun back to Detroit for a visit and I was so mad because they did not want to come home. They were crazy about Aunt Madelyn. Sam & I are so glad we made the trip this summer to visit with her and spend time getting to meet her grandchildren whom she loved and was so proud of. She took us on a tour as usual, we visited the old neighborhood on Underwood, and she even surprised us the next day with one of her home-cooked meals. Many loving memories to share. Madelyn was taught to believe in the resurrection hope and that one day we will live on this earth under paradise conditions. We look forward to seeing that beautiful smile again.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Madelyn when she came to work at FIB. Right away we became fast friends and shared funny stories. What I liked most about Madelyn was that she was easy to talk to and work with. she was kind, considered and always helpful. She kept up with her old friends as she made new ones. Madelyn also was a good cook. On several occasions she would make my favorite dishes. She would always say "Pat you are my friend." I will miss my friend.

“Madelyn played such a huge role in my teenage years, she lived directly across the street from us and was a dear friend of my Mother. She and My Mother along with the entire Underwood family all took a role in raising each other children. Their friendship lasted over many decades and it was Madelyn who read the obituary at My Mothers home going service in 2008 with heartfelt warmth and sincere conviction. Rest in Heaven Madelyn. Tell Harvey and My Mother I said hello until we meet again. Monnie, Nissy, and little Harvey, we love all. Kimberly Matlock on behalf of the Matlock Family.
