Celebration Of Life For Mae Wyllie Woods

Mae Wyllie Woods was born on July 29, 1921 in Lovejoy, Illinois to the union of Wilson and Lena Neal. She was the only daughter born among four brothers. Mae's parents and siblings preceded her in death.

She attended public school in Illinois and after graduating high school she attend Nursing School and earned her R.N. degree. Mae later moved to Detroit, Michigan and became a faithful member of Ebenezer A.M.E. Church for over 60 years.

Mae was employed at the Visiting Nurse Association and retired after 40 years of service. Her most fulfilling place of employment with VNA was at Crittendon Hospital in the Well Baby Clinic for the State of Michigan.

Mae was united in holy matrimony to the late George B. Woods on May 27, 1967. She and George enjoyed hunting and would take pride and pleasure in hosting the Annual Wild Game Dinners. She also enjoyed arts and crafts and took great care in decorating her many hats and preparing gifts and mementos for various occasions which also included the Annual Senior Christmas Luncheon at her church, Timothy Baptist Church and other individuals. She was always willing to help those in need and her favorite saying was "Let my life and deeds speak for me."
