“ Auntie Nuke! I have so many fond memories, it was so hard to let you go in those last hours, but to know that you are at peace and with Jesus, your parents and siblings in heaven is a blessing. I remember coming to Alabama to visit as a kid and you would always be so tickled to see us...I just loved your laugh!

“ Growing up, I used to drink a gallon of milk by myself! Grandma used to complain so much that one time Aint Nuke hid the milk from me! Needless to say, she never returned it to the fridge to keep it from me and it went bad! Lmbo!! I have nothing but fond memories of my auntie and her loyalty to my grandparents. RIP Aunt Nuke. You may be absent from the body, but you are surely present with The Lord!
