

Ms. Mahalia Burns

January 24, 1949 - April 3, 2013

Mahalia (Chick) Burns was born on January 24, 1949 in Macon, Mississippi to the union of the late Mary and Earnest Dismukes. She also received her formal education in the Mississippi school system.

Mahalia accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and was baptized at an early age at Oakleaf Missionary Baptist Church.

Mahalia moved to Detroit, Michigan in the late 60s. In the early 1970s she married Oliver Burns and from this union she gave birth to the love of her heart, her loving daughter Lutrease Burns.

From an early age Mahalia projected a strong work ethic and was a loving devoted provider for her family. She worked in nursing for over 30 years, loved to help others, until health wouldn't allow her to continue.

She enjoyed playing cards and was very good at it (a champion), enjoyed cooking (fantastic cook), loved being with her family and friends.

Mahalia was a beautiful lady full of energy, life and confidence. Her door was always open to help anyone in need. An amazing woman (mother), friend, she was.

Mahalia went home to be with the Lord late Wednesday evening on April 3, 2013 in her home of over 40 years.
