“ Dear Dot and family,
Words cannot express the sadness I felt at hearing of Doug's passing. I remember the times he was next door, on Leslie and I would be visiting my father and see him in the backyard. We would meet at the fence that separated our family homes just like we did as children. We would update each other on our lives and family. He loved talking about his famiy and sharing information about mutual friends. My prayers go out to you and your family. God Bless, Gwen Crumley-Farmer

“ Dear Dot,

*I just received word from Sidney Crumley about Doug's passing. Please know I am so sorry to hear this. My hearts go out to you and the children. When I think of my memories of Doug they are not separate from you. I was best friends with his little sister Deb, and Douglas was much older than us; at least it felt like it back then, but time has a way of bridging the gap. But that's why I mostly remember him with you - when you guys were over on Leslie street. I remember the card games and the picnics. You didn't see one of you without the other, and he always seemed so proud of you and his children. Couples like you and Doug, who are dedicated to each other are always one of the most memorable parts of life. You lived your love everyday. We all learn as we grow how challenging that can be- it's not easy; but it can be nothing less than the greatest testimony to love - that "it endures all things". My thoughts, prayers and love are with all of you, your children and grandchildren. Please accept my condolences on behave of my entire family; the Millers of Leslie street. Clara, Corliss, Brenda, and Rosalyn (Keptler and Dwight are no longer with us) However, we will all, always be, family.

*Today, we celebrate his life with you, Love
Rosalyn (Miller) Jackson*
