October 24, 1931 - September 11, 2019

In Loving Memory Of;

Mamie Louise Baskin was born on October 24, 1931 in Humboldt, Tennessee to Doris Katherine McBride and Willie Currie. As a young girl she and her family moved to Detroit, Michigan settling in the historical Black Bottom area of Detroit. Mamie received Jesus as her personal Lord and Savior at an early age at New Jerusalem Church, C.O.G.I.C. in Detroit, Michigan. She later became first Secretary of New Jerusalem Church.

After attending Miller High School, she married Willie James Jackson, Sr. to this union two children were born a son, Willie James, and a daughter Gay. While raising her children Mamie worked in the automobile industry and later as a licensed cosmetologist. Mamie had a love for learning and education she later earned her High School Diploma and her Associate Degree in Mental Health from Wayne County Community College in Detroit, Michigan.

In 1965 Mamie met the love of her life Chester Baskin, a professional roofer. Together they founded C & M Roofing, Inc. a commercial and residential roofing company. While building their business, Mamie obtained her Builders, Inspectors, Contractors and Real Estate licenses. She and Chester had 45 wonderful years together until his passing in 2010.

In 1991 Mamie and Chester became members of Word of Faith International Christian Center led by Bishop Keith A. Butler in Southfield, Michigan. They enjoyed participating in the small worship groups and the Silver Saints. One year, Mamie traveled to Israel with the Church to explore various Biblical sites.

Mamie was interested in and enjoyed a wide variety of activities. She enjoyed singing (supplied background vocals for a local gospel group). She was an avid shopper who enjoyed wearing the newest fashions. She loved traveling and being outdoors. She and Chester shared a love of fishing and boating and spent many weekends and summers at their cottage in Ontario, Canada.

Mamie is preceded in death by her beloved husband Chester, her mother, Doris Katherine Taylor; father, Willie Currie; stepfather, Robert Lewis Taylor; brothers, Leon Currie, Robert Lewis Taylor Jr., and Ernest James Taylor; sister, Ernestine Currie, and treasured grandson, William Christopher Jackson.
