

Ms. Marcia Ann Strong-Youngblood

September 12, 1942 - December 19, 2019

In Loving Memory Of;

Marcia Ann Strong-Youngblood was born September 12, 1942 in Detroit, MI to the late Viola May Talbot and Charles Simpson, however she was raised by her aunt and uncle Beryl and Henry Blackstone. Marcia was preceded in death by her brothers, Aubrey and Richard Barmore.

Marcia accepted Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of Outer Drive Faith Lutheran Church for many years. Marcia attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Central High School. She later received her Electrical Training Certification from A. Philip Randolph Career and Technical Center in Detroit.

Marcia was a devoted mother, in her first union, she met and married James Strong. From this union, Damon and Judith (Toni) Strong were born. In her second union, she met and married Louis C. Youngblood. From this union, Phyllis and Gwendolen Youngblood were born. Marcia was a dedicated grandmother, as she without hesitation, raised two grandchildren, Ashley Giles and Martel Strong from birth.

Marcia enjoyed spending time with family, playing cards, and ballroom dancing, but mostly being with her grand and great-grandchildren. Marcia was well known for her generosity, her willingness to help others, and her remarkable work ethic. She was always the life of the party with a heart encased in gold. Marcia will be remembered as a strong pillar in the family, an avid dog lover, her jazzy style, "The Mom Whisperer", her interest in technology and being forever young at heart.
