The Life of Margaret Jean Carter:

Margaret Jean Carter was born January 4, 1937 to Wilson and Leola Smith. She accepted Christ at an early age and was currently a member at Christian Fellowship of Love Baptist Church, Rev. Samuel Thompson, Pastor.

Margaret, affectionately known as Jean, was preceded in death by her mother and father.

Jean was educated in Birmingham Public Schools, graduating from Westfield High School and B.T.W. Business College.

Jean's family relocated to Detroit, Michigan. Jean further enhanced her education at Wayne State University.

Jean was employed with Plastomer Corporation, UAW Solidarity House as an UAW representative.

In 1975, Jean married the love of her life, Clevell (Jim) Carter. Jean was a devoted wife and mother and strived to mimic the teachings of her mother, the late Leola Smith.

Jean was so many things to us all. She was not just a wife, mother, sister or friend. She was the rock that held the family together. She was a compassionate soul and we will truly miss her.

On Sunday, December 8, 2013, Jean made her peaceful transition to the Lord.
