“ Thank you Lord for allowing Bishop and Sis Roberts to be Mom and Dad friends. AND for visiting us when we were children. Mommy had 12 children also. Once I was born (which is #10) then Sis Roberts started having her children. Eventually Sis Roberts caught up with Mom: Both having 12: THEY were truly friends of my parents!!

“ Praise the Lord Roberts Family! I enjoyed every opportunity shared with mother, every time I entered those doors on Freeland St., the warmth, love, laughter experienced and the best meals at the dinner table were amazing. And then, for mother to invite me to help sometimes in that once love-filled kitchen on Williams St... was truly an honor and a privilege💕. Family, thank you sharing your mom with me and then pouring your love out to me, all 12 of you! Yes I could go on and on but I'll stop here and end with Holiness was enriched by her love and resolve to please God! Love on Roberts' Clan

“ Aunt Margaret is the sister of my late Mother-in-law, Edith L. Hunt (Prater) and was beloved by our entire family. My eldest daughter Jewel chose Margaret and late Pastor Wilson Roberts as her godparents after her relocation to Michigan back in the 80's to attend college. She spent time off campus with the Roberts' church plus their household to "hear the noise" of a family. She didn't realize before leaving home that she would miss her siblings' "noisemaking," lol.

I always enjoyed conversing with Margaret too. She was a great Mother and a hospitable host to guests. I never forgot her delicious potato salad and her beautiful singing voice!

Rest in Peace, Lady Margaret! I know Uncle Wilson, Edith, and other departed family rejoiced to see your arrival to Heaven though we will miss you here. We are comforted to know, however, that we shall all meet again someday!

“ Mother called me we talked cried and she said she wants the best for me and my family. She was a true Gem. Thank you mother for being honest and transparent with me. I will always love you.
