

Mrs. Margaret Helen Ward

October 2, 1929 - February 5, 2015

A Memorial Service For Margaret Helen Ward:

Helen Ward was born October 18, 1929 in Detroit, Michigan, the second child of the late Leander and Alma Milledge. She resided in Detroit until the age of ten (10), when her family moved to the suburb of Inkster. She was preceded in death by six siblings; Alma, Nathaniel, Jesse, Esther, Neoma, and James.

Helen attended Lincoln and Carver Elementary Schools and graduated from Inkster High School in 1948. When she was twelve years old she received the gift of the Holy Ghost at Bethlehem Temple Church of Inkster, MI, under the late Elder O.G. Hayes' leadership.

Helen moved to New York City for two years before coming back to Michigan, where she met and married James Oliver Ward, in 1957. To this union was born three daughters; Lori, Pamela, and Maureen.

Helen was a member of the YGCU and later in life became a member of the Northern District Council. Helen worked for the Internal Revenue Service. She eventually quit work to become a full-time mother and wife to her husband and daughters.

Helen enjoyed music, sewing, gardening, oil painting and various other creative endeavors. She also taught Sunday school at Christ Temple Church-

Westland, MI-District Elder Samuel B. Ware; was a missionary, poet and author of a book, called "The Truth about the Godhead, Now it Can Be Told." She also loved to sing any Mahalia Jackson songs, in her sweet falsetto voice.

Helen had some major health concerns later on in life and quietly transitioned from this world on Thursday, February 5, 2015.
