“ My sympathy to the family. Recall pleasant memories you shared with your loved one. May you find comfort in Jesus words, "I am the resurrection and the life."-John 11:25

Ms. Tuffy - December 15, 2016 at 05:39 AM

“ This past week the one you loved stepped across the threshold that we call death, but it was only a step into another room, and not a stepping out of fellowship of life. It was a stepping into another one of the other rooms of our Father's House. Prayer is the thread that binds us together; and with prayer we will understand it better bye and bye. We love you, care for you and pray that God will continue to bless you.

*“Then shall the dust return to the earth
As it was; and the spirit shall return unto
God who gave it.”
Eccles.3:21*

“ My deepest sympathies to Uncle Greg and family on the loss of Auntie Marge. I have wonderful childhood memories of many good times spent at your home. Auntie Marge always showed a loving and generous spirit and she will be missed. May you find comfort in God's grace, love and mercy and in knowing that she is at peace and rests with the most High, our Lord and Savior.

“ To Greg Perkins & Family,

You have my deepest sympathy and prayers go out to you and your family as you lay your mother to rest. I know your mother is smiling and in heaven rejoicing for there is no more pain or sorrow. Anything you need dont hesitate to call....I will keep you all lifted up in prayer.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort embrace you with peace and hope now and in the days to come as we all look forward to the fulfillment of Rev 21:4 when even death will be no more. Deepest sympathy.
