“ To The Family Of Mrs. Mariah Davis

May God comfort and keep your hearts today and in the days to come.

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Orangie Robinson were the first Christian women to pour into my life. Mrs. Davis opened her heart and home to me and other children in the Wisconsin neighborhood. Temple of Faith started in the basement of her home.

I fondly remember her playing in my hair as I sat by her in church. She didn't know that little touch gave me so much comfort. She was a woman of strength, for it is not easy being a Pastor's wife, but she did it with love, dignity and by the grace of God.

The many memories of Mrs. Davis will always be a part me. I'm sending LOVE to the family, friends and Temple of Faith Church Family. Mrs. Mariah Davis has touched so many lives. Thank you God for sending her to us.

Love, Daladier Sykes

“ Our deepest sympathy to the Davis Family for the homegoing of their loved one. We may be saddened by death but we also feel joy when someone has prepared themselves for Eternal Life. Sister Davis surrendered her life to the Lord, therefore we may miss her presence on Earth but she now has a place prepared for her as Christ said in his word.
