MM

“ We are descendants of the Arthur family from Selma Al., so we as 1st cousins grew up very close, because our parents were close. When Marilyn was a little girl, she used to like sitting close to me and just talk and ask a lot of questions. Marilyn grew up fast and was so mature at a young age and I was so proud of her. Marilyn and the boys would visit me quite often and she would tell me about an event or a story like nobody else. She would smile and laugh while telling me about whatever it was and the smile would just light up her face so bright. I love my cousin so dearly and I will always remember her as a strong woman, a woman who stood her ground against anyone, a woman of great character and pride, she was truly one of a kind. Goodbye my beloved, peace beyond to you. Your loving cousin, Mayme Marshall and family.

*P.S. Boys, if you need me for anything, you only have to call.
Love you.*
