“ My Aunt Marlene was the sweetest person you could ever know. She never judged me and offered me solace in my time of need. She was there for my Mom (her youngest sister) during a rough time in her life. They were there for each other. They lived together until her transition for 8 years. I know she is at peace now. Love you AUNTIE God is with you now. May peace be with your children and grandchildren and great , greats until we meet again. Joanne
