

Mr. Marquis Charles Lewis

March 8, 1971 - February 20, 2023

Marquis Charles Lewis was born in Detroit, Michigan to Leo C. Lewis and Anna R. Lewis on March 8, 1971. He attended Thomas M. Cooley High School and graduated in 1990. Following high school, Marquis attended American Building and Trades. He also completed that in 1990. That very same year, he accepted Christ into his life and was baptized at Northwest Church of Christ. In recent years, he would end most Sunday services with the closing prayer.

Mark, Chuck or Q, as some people knew him, was an extremely hard worker. He was always willing to help others. His selflessness and genuine good-hearted nature is what everyone loved about him. He always greeted people with a smile that lit the room. He aspired to be a motivational speaker and would practice most Sunday mornings before church service. Unfortunately, due to his unexpected passing, he was never able to accomplish this.

He once wrote:

“Dear Lord, I pray for the person reading this,
that you will give them the eyes that see the best,
and the heart that loves when it’s difficult to forgive.
Grant them rest, peace, joy and blessings from all their struggles. Keep them from evil and grant them success. In Jesus name.”

He is preceded in death by his father, Leo C. Lewis and his brother, Da’Shaun M. Lewis and his half-brother, Frank Eugene Lewis. He is survived by his mother, Anna R. Lewis, two sisters, Lynette A. Lewis and Micah M. Lewis, six nieces and nephews, Cardien D. Stephens Jr., Maiya S. Lewis, DeMarco M. Ellis, Keema I. Carter, Ashton L. Sanders and Aivah A. Mitchell and a host of family and friends.
