“Marsha was a great neighbor and a true friend to my family for the last 15 years. She was a caring person, one who stuck by us in good times and bad. She enjoyed gardening, cooking and taking care of others. We enjoyed many special moments together. She was the perfect neighbor. Always willing to share recipes, wisdom and love. Most of all Marsha was a Christian who was ready to testify about God's goodness to all that would listen. I fondly remember how she checked on my mom and sister Stephanie, how she expressed concern about my family especially my son, David, how she came to our home to rehearse her speech for Sunday morning service. She brought a lot of laughter, joy and candor into our lives. Marsha was not pretentious, selfish or phony. She followed the two great commandments set forth in the Book of Matthew: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" (Matthew 22:37-39). We are glad we had the opportunity to have Marsha in our lives if only for a few moments. Rest in Heaven dear friend. You will forever live in our hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with Marsha's family.
