

Mr. Marvin Eugene Evans Sr.

November 17, 1942 - August 7, 2016

To Everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven
Ecclesiastes 3:1

A Time to be Born:

Marvin Eugene Evans (affectionately called Bo) was born on November 17, 1943 in Honea Path, S.C. to the union of Clyde W. Evans and Janie L. Evans. He was the fifth of six children, both parents and three siblings (Clyde Evans, Almentia Stewart and Ruby Lindsay) preceded his death.

Marvin was educated in Anderson and Abbeville County Public School system where he also drove the school bus while attending school.

A Time To Work:

Marvin moved to Detroit, MI in the fall of 1962. In 1963, he was baptized in Jesus' name under the ministry of late Bishop David L. Ellis at Grace Temple of Apostolic Faith. In 1963, he began working for Ford at the Rouge Plant, then moved on to Chrysler, Detroit Axel Plant in Pontiac, MI, General Motors and finished his work career in Bay City with General Motors until he retired.

A Time To Love:

Marvin was married to Barbara Ann Evans-Russell and to that union two beautiful children Barbretta Evans and Marvin Evans Jr. Later, Marvin met and married Cheryl Evans and to that union a beautiful son Rashim Evans was born. He loved his children!

Marvin was always the life of the party, always having a crazy funny joke or telling something that had happen on the job that would make us laugh. He loved music he used to play the guitar for himself only (smile), but he was good. One of his favorite songs was "Purple Rain" by Prince.

A Time To Mourn:

Marvin leaves to cherish his memories, his children Barrette Evans, Marvin Evans Jr. and Rashim (Chantale) Evans; four grandchildren, Steven Russell, Samantha Russell, Miara Evans and Tiona Evans; two sisters, Martha J. Evans and Dollie (Henry) Anderson, and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
