

Mrs. Mary Francis Baker - Thomas

December 4, 1941 - May 16, 2015

The Journey:

Mary Francis Baker Thomas, also affectionately known as "Mae Francis" was born December 4, 1941 to William and Elizabeth Baker in Alexander City, Alabama. She was the oldest of three children. Mary was very protective of her younger brothers. In 1947 the Baker family moved to Michigan where she attended Hamtramck Public Schools and graduated from Hamtramck High School in 1960. Mary accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and attended Wayside Baptist Church.

Mary loved cooking, going to the casino, listening to the Blues and spending time with her family. Family meant everything to her. On any given day of the week you could find her in the kitchen cooking the type of meal most reserved for Sundays or holidays. Everyone LOVED Mary's cooking! She believed in living life to the fullest and having fun which she did until her passing on Saturday, May 16, 2015.
