“ Mary Ann and I go way back to Jr. High School (as it was called back then....lol). We became best friends back then. We even shared our first escape from the parents' home together after high school learning how to be on our own. We lost touch while I was in the Army, but connected back up through Peace and Goodwill Baptist Church, and my Sister when I returned home. For the last year, Mary Ann was a caregiver for my Mom who passed in late August. Mary Ann's beautiful personality and her beautiful smile will be truly missed. Rest peacefully, Mary Ann. You no longer have to endure the pain. Much Love. The Garner Family
