“ *Our dearest Aunt Bea, the youngest and last living sibling of my late daddy. I was looking forward to visiting again in the Spring. God had other plans. We spoke on the phone often. If she didn't hear from me she had the girls call to check on me. We're only 13 years apart.
I thought of her as my big sister at times. I visited the family as a teen several times. Her late husband was always my favorite Uncle.
Due to my latest surgery, I won't be in attendance physically. My heart will be with Kim, Lori, Terryl and the grandsons. I love you Aunt Bea 🙏*

“ Mrs Diggs was one of the most beautiful fun loving women I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Always elegantl and dressed to the nines!! She was my fashion role model. She was also my mom's dearest friend for as long as I can remember. She will always be remembered for that famous laugh!! She could have easily been a comedian.

My family loved her dearly and she will be missed tremendously!!
Sleep well Queen!!

I love you ❤️❤️
