“ I was shocked when I found out you passed. You will be missed for your truth telling and sweet spirit. I will miss you, I sat in the same row with you at Greater Grace and spoke to you often at Citadel of Praise. You were a Class Act! R.I.H❤️

“ It is hard to believe that you are gone to be with the Lord when only three weeks ago I was talking with you at my Mom visitation. Rest in Heaven I'm praying for your family during this most difficult time.

“ It won't be the same not greeting Mary early Sunday morning in Vision Hall, or to see her sitting to my right. Over the years we developed a loving relationship. I was always teasing her about her fashion dressing. I was there to support her when her son passed and she was there for me at my daughters passing. She was a soldier, despite her health challenges. God bless you family and give you peace.

I will miss greeting Mary every Sunday Morning. She was so nice to my husband and I every week. I honored her as if she was my own mom. God Bless this family for sharing her with us❤️
