

Mrs. Mary E. Grant-Truss

November 11, 1946 - November 8, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Mary E. Grant-Truss:

Mrs. Mary Elease Grant-Truss was born to the late Mary Lou and Jim Grant on November 11, 1946 in Springfield, GA. She was the third born of five children. She was preceded in death by her late husband Jimmy Truss, her sister, Claratha Grant, and brothers William and Jimmy Grant.

Mary graduated with honors from Springfield Central High School in 1965. After graduating, Mary moved to Detroit, MI to be with her sister Claratha, She furthered her education at Detroit Business Institute.

In 1975, Mary started her career at General Motors. During shutdown and layoff, she enjoyed working with children at Blackwell Christian School.

Mary accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at St. Matthew Baptist Church, Springfield, GA under the leadership of Rev. Lawton. In January of 1977, she became a member of Meditation Missionary Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. T.W. Wade. She became the church secretary and remained faithful until her health failed. Mary was a dedicated member of many auxiliaries including the Usher Board. One thing is for certain, Mary loved Meditation.

As well as enjoying serving the Lord, Mary was an exceptional seamstress, loved to shop, play Farmville, travel, spend time with her family, and even make her famous dressing for any occasion. If you ever needed ANYTHING, Mary was the one to call. Mary would say "I know it all."

With her favorite son by her side, Mary received her angel wings at 8:35 am, Sunday, November 8, 2015 at her home in Redford, MI.
