

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hinton

May 21, 1932 - December 31, 2013

Mary Elizabeth Hinton was born May 21, 1932 in Allendale County, South Carolina to the late Edmund Rice and Lucile Atkins. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Roosevelt Hinton and son Luther Bryant.

Mary relocated to Michigan where she and Roosevelt made their home. Mary was a living testimony of God's Grace and Mercy as she was known to the neighborhood as "Momma Mary." No one knows how the title arrived, but she provided the neighborhood with unconditional love, outpouring hospitality and overwhelming generosity. Always active in her home congregation Greater United Temple of Christ, under the spiritual guidance of Bishop Rudolph Stanfield Sr., Mary served as a Deaconess and on the Mothers Board.

During Mary's time with us, she was known for being on the move. Although she had her own driver's license, we can count on one hand the number of times she drove a car. Mobility wasn't a hurdle for this lover of life. Mary was always willing to take a road trip, ride along, or catch the bus to visit any of the sick and shut in friends or family. She enjoyed watching her children grow and took great pride in encouraging their achievements.

“ To the family of Mr. Mary Elizabeth Hinton

There is hope even for a tree. If it is cut down, it will spout again” If a man dies, can he live again?

Extending heartfelt condolences for your loss. I cannot begin to comprehend what you are going through, I do know there is no greater pain than that of a family member losing someone. Keep cherishing loving memories of laughter and times spent together, and may those memories bring you joy and warm your heart. God assures us that soon death will be no more. And I have hope toward God, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. (Acts. 24:15).

Sorry for your loss, we all look forward to the time when God “will long for the work of his hands” Job 14:7, 14, 15 May Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4); comfort you in your time of need. May you and your family look to God for strength and courage to get you all thought this time of your loss?
