

Mrs. Mary Pearl Holliday

April 4, 1934 - May 24, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:

Mary Pearl Henley was born on April 4, 1934 in Georgetown, Georgia to James William Henley and Ozie Lee Henley. Her parents preceded her in death.

Mary Pearl Henley accepted Christ at an early age. She remained on the usher board in the church until late 2019.

Mary Pearl Henley worked in a small fabric factory until she married and started her family. She remained a housewife thereafter, to take care of home and her children.

She joined in holy matrimony with Mack Lee Holliday for over 30 years. To this union, twelve children were born.

Mary, as a young girl, looked forward to working on the farm with her parents where she was taught how to milk cows, pick and shuck corn, can food, and cook. She enjoyed cooking for her family and keeping the home clean. Mary's husband Mack taught her how to drive. She especially enjoyed singing in the choir and going fishing and traveling.
