

Mrs. Mary Ann Jackson

February 14, 1930 - January 18, 2017

In Loving Memory Of Mary Ann Jackson:

Mary Ann Jackson was the second child born to the union of Ciscero and Sammie Lee Cade in Louisville, Kentucky on February 14 1930. Her parents along, with her only brother, James (Buck) preceded her in death.

Mary Ann, her mom (Sammie) and brother (Buck) moved to Detroit when she was 15 years old. She completed her education in the Detroit Public School system in ninth grade. She soon after married Edmond Jackson with whom four children were born; Cylinda, Sandra, Janice and Donnie. Her only son Donnie, preceded her in death.

Mary Ann is affectionately known as "Mother", which is indicative of the role she played in the lives of those around her. "Mother" was honest in her words and thoughtful in her advice. Although she was straight-forward and frank, you could always depend on "Mother" for truth and guidance.

Mary Ann was not currently active in church but her relationship with the Lord began at a very early age.

As a teen, she attended Tabernacle Baptist Church along with all of her cousins. Later in life, she joined Third New Hope Missionary Baptist Church.

Most of Mary Ann's adult life was spent working as a bartender for the Elks and a few other clubs. She was exceptional at her work, loyal and trustworthy. Customers loved knowing they could depend on her presence, her ear, and good advice. She retired from bartending in her early 60s.

In Mary Ann's spare time, she loved to cook and shop. Those around her would say she was very good at both. Her fashion sense was impeccable and many inquired about recipes for her meals. She continued her weekly shopping trips and cooking delicious meals until her illness became too much.

I'm thinking of you today. I know that day is coming, and I still dread it. I lost my mom that day! You were more than a grandmother to me. I love and miss you very much.
