“ Well I must say Granny you lived a long, beautiful life. What a blessing it is to live 97 years. I'm truly grateful for your life and presence. My memories of you are good but funny because I can remember every time Daddy or Momma had you on the phone and I ask to say hi to you would ALWAYS turn into a long convo baby! Your storytelling on the phone calls tickled me because I never knew half the people you were telling me about in the south but to hear you talk and go on for minutes is what pleases my heart. I would say ok, talk to you later but you would still go on and on until someone would take the phone from you. One thing I know and will keep in my heart is how much Daddy loved him some Little Maa. He talked about you alot. And his stories growing up were pretty interesting to hear. What a life you all lived prior to me being born. I cried tears of happiness because I know my Daddy gets to see you again. And I can feel his angelic and contagious smile just knowing ya'll are back together in heaven for good now. I'll see ya'll when my time here on earth is complete Granny. Almost 2 years ago ni recorded your last conversation with Daddy before he went to heaven and injust get tickled listening to it because at 95 years old a mother's love never changes and you listened to your 80 year so tell you he was so sick and lots of pain. He made it out of here 12/21/19 and you are gone now as of 10/20/21. I'll never forget ya'll and will be looking for the rainbows y'all send me down here. Get your rest Diva. Job well done. You're at home where nothing or no one can do you no harm. Love u

“ Granny, you taught me to be the best at what ever I set my  out to do. Your words were Lasha if you want to work for the garage company be the best garbage worker they had.. I remember how you worked cleaning the white peoples house, ironing their clothes, taking care of their children . You always made sure that I knew that you loved me. Your words were I love  you Lasha and don't let no one tell you different!!! I have missed my nights sleeping in your bed with you in my adult years , you putting me to sleep with all your amazing stories. I would ask you questions about your life and you gave me all the answers and some that I didn't even want to know. Now you can come in my bed and we can talk.. what I have truly miss is talking to you on the phone, I knew every single time when I called you it was going to be 2 to 3 hours of phone conversation , we wouldn't get off sometimes until you got tired and then other times after saying many times ok Granny I got to go now you heard me but continued to talk. That was the funniest thing, you were the best Granny I love  you and don't you foe get it. Love your Sheila Lasha Lenear
