

Ms. Mary Yvonne Melton

May 3, 1942 - August 21, 2013

Mary Yvonne Melton was born in Sprott, Alabama, the third child born to the late Bertis Melton and Inell Perry Melton. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age at Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, Sprott, Alabama.

She graduated from Lincoln High School in Marion, Alabama. She completed an associate degree (AA) from Selma University, Selma, Alabama. She was employed as a claim analyst at Blue Cross Blue Shield, Detroit, Michigan for more than forty years.

She was a member of Straight Gate International Church, where she served until her health failed. She loved her church and church family.

Her enthusiastic and loving approach to life and to people left a legacy of excellence to be cherished by her beloved family and friends.

Mary was always concerned about her family and friends' salvation and constantly talked to them, urging them to get it right with God.

Mary's love and her quest for life touched many lives. On Wednesday morning, August 21, 2013 at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, Michigan, Mary made her transition home to rest where she will suffer no more. Praise the Lord!
