

Ms. Mary Ann Robinson

July 9, 1959 - March 13, 2022

In Loving Memory Of

Mary Ann Robinson was a strong working woman. She had a passion for family and helping others.

Mary was born on July 9, 1959 to the union of Charlie Alexander and Cora Mae Roberson in Leland, Mississippi. She accepted Christ and was baptized early in life. She graduated from Cody High School and later continued her studies at Wayne County Community College where she obtained her degree.

Mary was employed at Veterans Hospital over 30 years. Mary served as an usher and sang in the choir at Christ Reform #1 Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Eddie Brown, her Pastor.

Her hobbies included crocheting and spending time with her family and cooking.

Mary made her transition on Sunday, March 13, 2022.

She leaves to cherish her memory a "Special Friend"; ten siblings, of which six preceded her in death: (JB Byes), (James Earl Robinson), (Alice Robinson), Vera Sadler, (Robert Robinson), (Lillie Pearl Adams), (Ernestine Roberson) Albert Roberson / wife: Monique and Doris Robinson; a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ *Family of Mary Robinson:
I had the pleasure of working with Mary at John D. Dingell VA Medical Center. She was a very caring person liked by all. She was always crocheting things for others or helping those in need. Mary was the type of person who was everyones friend. Always happy and optimistic. She will be missed by many but be comforted knowing she is resting in heaven now.
With deepest sympathy,
