

Ms. Marzette Leflore

September 7, 1961 - September 1, 2021

Marzette was born on September 7, 1961. He was called home to the Lord on September 1, 2021.

Marzette was a kind, peaceful soul. He loved just about everyone he met. He loved talking to others and making friends. Everyone knew him as he walked down the street with his walking cane. He often liked to talk about things from the past such as his favorite singers or movies, from the Jackson Five to the Sylvers, GQ, Enchantment, Lost in Space or Bruce Lee were his favorites.

He never broke any laws, never went to prison, never hurt anyone. Marzette was born with a learning disability and went to special schools as a child. He won several medals for track and field in the special olympics. And although he never got it, he wanted so much to have the love of a good woman.

As a kid he liked playing baseball, basketball and riding bikes. He also loved comic books, superheroes like Thor, the Hulk and Iron Man. He loved going to the movies, concerts, and bowling. He didn't smoke, drink or use any street drugs. Give him his Pepsi and he was good.

Marzette didn't need much to make him happy. All he wanted was someone to spend time with him.

I'm going to miss my brother Marzette so much. He had such a warm smile and he was truly a beautiful human being. Goodbye brother Marzette, Mama is waiting for you in heaven with our Lord thy God. Amen
