“ I offer my sincerest condolences personally to the parents of Master Algernon. No matter when a love one leaves they're gone much too soon. When a child dies, it's particularly hard for the mother, so the Bible acknowledges the bitter grief that a mother can feel. (2 King 4:27) Of course, it's difficult for the bereaved father as well. "O that I might have died, I myself, instead of you," lamented King David when his son Absalom died.--2 Samuel 18:33 During this time of sadness, may you draw close to God in prayer, and the Bible promises that "he himself will sustain you."--Psalm 55:22. May your memories of Little Algernon give you strength and the complete reliance on, "the God of comfort" help you to endure. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). ##imported-begin##sylvia colston ##imported-end##

“ Dear LaTasha and Al:

I can't imagine how it must feel to lose a child, and I am so sorry for your loss. My heart aches for you, but know that you are not alone in your sorrow. I know that little Algernon is with our Lord Jesus, free from pain, and resting comfortably in His arms, and we will see little Al again in heaven. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you always.

I have submitted a picture of little Al with his sisters to PYE Funeral Home. It now appears in the picture album on the website. I am currently in Arizona, and I will not be able to make it to the funeral, but I have sent flowers entitled, "GONE TOO SOON", and I will be with you in spirit. God Bless you with peace and comfort.

Much Love,

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your precious son, Algernon. Nothing I say can remove the hurt you must be experiencing, but there is One who understands and feels your pain. After all, children are a reward from Him, (Psalm 127:3), a beautiful gift from God.(James 1:17). Death is something He never intended for mankind to experience, but it is something He will eliminate very soon (1 Corinthians 15:26) When God's Son, Jesus, was on earth he showed his love for children and there were times when he even resurrected them and returned them to their parents. (Mark 5:22-23, 35-43; Matthew 19:13-15) He promised at John 5:28,29 that the day is coming when 'all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out (including Algernon). Soo, right now, Algernon is just sleeping, awaiting the Master's call (John 11:11,25-26) I know just reading these Scriptures can't erase your pain, but it can surely point forward to the One who will erase all our pangs and fears of death...forever, Jehovah God! (Isaiah 25:8, Psalm 83:18)May you find comfort in knowing that this time is just ahead and may this Bible Truth help make your pain a little easier to bear knowing that God Will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.
