“ *Nick, what a wise young-man. I didn't have the pleasure of knowing you as long as many, so I feel cheated. Nick, what I do know is that you were bright, respectful, mature, responsible, motor-cycle riding, hardworking, handsome, and you loved the Lord. All I can say is, "The angels must of been falling short so God needed a pony-tail wearing, GUCCI cap sporting 14 year old with SWAGG to set an example of true kindness, tenderness, and love" Shine Nick Shine!! Ms. Price
P.S. Lela admitted to having a crush on you, don't tell her I told you I promised I wouldn't :).##imported-begin##Ms. Calhoun-Price##imported-end##*

“ Kim, I am saddened by your loss. While I never had the pleasure of meeting your son I am confident that he like his mother is a wonderful human being. There are absolutely no words that came provide you with even temporary relief from the pain I know you feel. But I am confident that one day the two of you will be reunited again. I continue to keep you and your family in my prayers during these difficult tmes. HJ.##imported-begin##Henry James##imported-end##

“ My heart breaks with yours. I understand your grief, confusion and despair... and I really wish there were words of comfort that I could offer. Just know that many in Detroit are with you in your grieving process. You are not alone. Dominic was a handsome young man... certainly full of life like many others his age. While on Earth, I'm sure his life was sweet, so please have no regrets. In Heaven, God is good to him... no pain... only joy. Rest in peace, Dominic.##imported-begin##Kmeil##imported-end##
