“ I want to express my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of Joshua. Even though I did not know him personally, I'm sure, like any parent, you set solid goals for his future. The bible is the only place we can find true comfort during this difficult time.

When we hear a eulogy, it should give comfort. But it doesn't. Why? Even though we die, it is something unnatural. Because, in our DNA pattern, Jehovah put the desire to live and never die. . Ecclesiastes 3:11 "God has put eternity into man's mind" or "their heart." What REALLY gives us hope? Not words to stir our emotions, but the truth found in the bible, which gives us hope that you will see Joshua again. Don't give up on your hopes and dreams for Johsua because the bible encourages us at - John 5:28-29 "all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out"..

Revelations 21:3-5. (My favorite scripture) Let me tell you why. "The tent of God (or God's protection) will be with mankind. He will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." Does that include your tears, your mourning, or your pain. Yes it does. Why can we be confident that this will come true? Verse 5 says, "Look! I am making all things new." "these words are faithful and true."

Ecclesiastes 7:2 "Better is it to go to the house of mourning than to go to the banquet house. We all should take this to heart." After a funeral, many are rushing to get to the "banquet house" (or place where there will be food) This scripture is important, because when attending a funeral, it gives us an opportunity to reflect on our life course. We need to meditate on how we live our life now. Our everlasting life is in the hands of Jehovah God. We may die, but Jehovah by means of Jesus can restore us back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:26, talks about death being an enemy. We hate it. But it's there. Death "with be brought to nothing", says the bible.

I hope that the words from the bible can give you comfort and know that others are thinking of you.
