“ I will miss Michael. I'll miss his smile and the twinkle in his eyes. I will call at a later date. Right now remember that I care for you and you are in my prayers. I love you dearly. I have the utmost respect and admiration for you. You taught a lot of people how to love and care for their children. You ran away from your responsibility. You always thought of ways to make life more enjoyable for Michael. You always put him first in your lives. And now God has rewarded Michael. God bless you. “ I know that I haven't called, texted, sent an e-mail, or anything to show that I care---BUT I DO!! The truth is that I am at a lost for words. I love you all soooo much and no matter what I always will. I know that there is not much I can do but if there is anything I can do, I WILL! Please don't think of it as a lost because it's not, everyone has a calling---and it was time for Michael's. And I know you all don't want to hear "he's in a better place." So I'll just tell you to stay strong because you will see your son/grandson/nephew/brother/cousin again because nothing is forever.

“ Sister and Brother-Job Well Done! The Lord must have thought very highly of you on the day of creation, when he had to pick out the two loving creatures specially made to care for His child, Pookadook, while on earth. He must have known that out of every being created, you two were the only candidates that had a resume so honorable that he trusted you with His child. He trusted your tenderness, your loving kindness, your patience, your dedication, your long hours through the night and short hours during the day, your judgement, your marriage, your commitment...your willingness to hold on and your submisiveness to let go...hmmm, I guess He needed someone just like Him.

So yet I say again, Job Well Done. He trust you and I know that your Spirit trusts Him. Lean not to your own understanding but to his will and He will guide you until the day you see your son again.

There's so much more to say, but I'll wrap it up in the best three words ever spoken, I love you~##imported-begin##Auntie Na-Na##imported-end##
