“ As kids, I lived on Hogarth between Linwood and Lawton, you stayed on Montgomery between Linwood & Lawton. How many trips back and forth since 3rd grade did we do? Basketball, Skateboards, safety patrol and band class! Our Moms your Dad so supportive of our dreams and kicked our asses when were out of line. Rest my friend. Much love!

“ Booby & and I would buy the same clothes from head to toe. My fondest memory was the time I was sitting on my porch trying to draw a picture of my dream car A Mustang Gt , Booby pulls up in his parents Mustang Gt & let me go around the corner then said " That's enuff " !!!!! As we were young adults we had our own Mustang Gt's & Suzuki motorcycles alike.

Even though we didn't get to meet, we spoke often over the phone. You were Tyquan's brother from another mother n as his wife you became my brother in law too. We love you will miss you but you are resting now in peace. I will pray for your family n children. Black rest in peace our brother.
