

Mrs. Mattie Lue Jobe

January 12, 1924 - April 13, 2014

Mattie Lue Jobe was born on January 12, 1924 in Hazelhurst, Mississippi to Flossie Smith and Hearton Benson. She gave her life to God at an early age and was baptized at Damarcus Holiness Church under the leadership of Reverend Brunson. Mattie sung in the choir.

In 1941 she completed high school. Then she and her family moved to Detroit, where she joined Derrick Memorial Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Derrick. She attended Sunday school and sung in the choir. In the 1950's she met and later married David Jobe Sr. In 1970 they joined Davison Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Dr. Herman Yarber Jr. Mattie served on the nurses guild, mothers board, mission department and sung with the senior choir. She got a joy out of singing.

Mattie loved attending Sunday school and bible class. Mattie said her gift was to give. She also enjoyed helping to raise children within the family, neighbors and friends. Childcare was a pleasure to Mattie, especially in her early years.
