

Mr. Maurice Marquise Carpenter

February 3, 1995 - March 9, 2019

In Loving Memory:

Maurice Marquise Carpenter was born on February 3, 1995, the only child born to the Late Leah Rae Carpenter and Maurice Jenkins.

In 2010, Maurice AKA MoMo, suffered a great loss to his life when his mother, Leah Rae Carpenter, lost her battle for life. Even though Maurice had a lot of support from family and friends, he has never really recovered from that loss and it reflected in the life he chose to live. The one thing that was constant in his life was family, no matter how much he pushed them away at times, they always came back. Family was just like a yoyo, every time you threw it out, it would come back. Sometimes slow, sometimes fast, but it always came back no matter what.

On March 9, 2019, Maurice Marquise Carpenter AKA MoMo, was taken from us. We are here to Celebrate the 24 years that Maurice was given to us by Our Lord, Jesus Christ. Maurice suffered from Sickle Cell Anemia since the day he was born into this world, but he never let that hold him back from whatever he wanted to do and that included using it to his advantage a lot as he was growing up.
