“ With deepest sympathy. I always thought of aunt Sissy as the sassy aunt with so much joy and laughter. We were blessed to have her in our lives and she will truly be missed. She'll always be with you guys. As her children and grandchildren you'll always remember how it felt to laugh with her and to be loved by her. We pray these memories will bring comfort to you. It's hard to lose someone who meant so much to so many people and it's even harder that we can't all be together to say goodbye. I want you to know we're with you in spirit now and in the days ahead. Love cousin, Dorrinda & Family

“ My condolences go out to the children of my aunt Sissy. She was a very strong-minded strong-willed woman. It's very rare that she called me by my name it was always baby and I loved her for that. You guys stay strong she was proud of you and loved you all. She will be truly missed! If ever you need a shoulder to lean on I'm here. I love you guys.
Your cousin Anthony.
