

Mrs. Mazie Jones

June 12, 1927 - April 3, 2014

Life Reflections:

Mazie Jones was born June 12, 1926 in Montgomery, Alabama to the late Jack Chatmon and Lessie Howell Chatmon.

At an early age Mazie moved to Fort Valley, Georgia where she received her formal education. Mazie eventually returned to Montgomery, Alabama where she met and married Edward Wright. To this union two children were born, Donnett and Devora. Mazie and her family settled in New Orleans where they continued to live until she moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1955. She met and married Gurvais Jones November 1, 1965. To this union a son was born, Vince.

Mazie was a devoted mother and housewife. She loved beauty and this could be found in her home as well as her love for fashions. She would always provide financial wisdom to all those who would listen. Her sound financial advice was, "Don't spend all of your money and make sure you save some of your money" and "Only buy what you can afford!" Mazie truly lived by these words.

Mazie was a volunteer foster grandmother for over ten years. She was assigned to the Pediatrics Division of Sinai-Grace Hospital. She found great pleasure in providing care to infants. Mazie provided her service as a volunteer foster grandmother until her health began to fail.

Mazie made her peaceful transition to glory on Thursday, April 3, 2014.

“ *I am praying that the GOOD LORD will strengthen the entire family and wipe the tears from your eyes. Maize has gone to that beautiful home that the LORD has prepared for her. I know She is happy because she loved her beauty. It is OK to cry JESUS WEPT. Trust in the LORD with all thy heart knowing HE is to wise make a mistake..My deepest Sympathy to you all. GOD BLESS YOU.
LOVE YOU ALL
