

Mr. McArthur Lawrence

September 7, 1951 - October 21, 2023

In Loving Memory Of

McArthur Lawrence was born September 7, 1951 in Detroit, Michigan to Lucille Patterson and Bennie Lawrence

McArthur attended Detroit public schools and then furthered his education and earned an associate degree from Wayne County community college.

He always had a strong work ethic beginning his career at Midway market at 15 then transitioning to becoming a garage attendant at Ford Motor Company. Later being promoted to supervisor of garage operations. After a 37 year long career at Ford, he retired in 2007.

Mack married his childhood sweetheart, Brenda, in 1971 and they continued their marriage for 51 years. From this union, 2 children were born Michael and Michelle.

Mack also known as Bubba or Bo enjoyed spending time with his only grandchild, Asya as well as golfing, watching sports and working in his yard. In fact, he was acknowledged by his neighborhood and the city of Southfield for the best yard in the city multiple times. He was an advocate of physical fitness and worked vigorously to maintain his fitness and encourage others to do the same. But most of all, he loved spending with and nurturing his family. McArthur departed this life on October 21, 2023. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Bennie Lee Lawrence.

He leaves to cherish his many memories with his loving wife, Brenda Lawrence, his two children, Michael and Michelle, his granddaughter, Asya, his siblings, Orlandis, Gary, Tyrone (Jeannie), Linda, Loraine, Tamicka, sister-in-law Charlotte Lawrence and a host of nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Mack touched so many people in his life and his legacy of love for family and living life to its fullest will live through all of us.
