“ Too my little sister Missy, I know that you are gone, but I know you aren't far away. You will always be in my heart and I'll never ever forget the good times we had together. You were the one that always made everyone smile when they were down. You always knew how to help someone. You were the funny one of the family and made everyone laugh. I will see you again some day in heaven. Until then you are an angel watching over us. We love you a lot love your big sister Wendy.
