“ No one is ever prepared for such a thing as this, I know you are gone physically but your sweet spirit is still and will always be a big part of my memories. Yes, I cry in the morning and sometime in the night with disbelief but its only because I am selfish when it comes to you and realize I can never laugh again with MY Mel Mel (as I called you even from a toddler). I am now ready to face this life and live boldly, happily and like every day is my last because even in your death there was a lesson learned (how awesome you were), how sweet you are my love, my princess, my precious little sister rest in perfect peace. No one will ever fill your space in my heart.

*I LOVE you,
Angela*
